

Appendix III-I The Verification Guidelines as Equivalent to the Trainings for Fishing Vessel Officer

| Chart of the Verification Guidelines as Equivalent to the Trainings for Fishing Vessel Officer | |
|--|---|
| It is equivalent as complete the said trainings with one of the following qualification: | |
| Position | Qualification |
| First Level Captain | Having obtained a First Level Captain qualification certified by the Ministry of Transportation and Communications, or the Examination Yuan certification on passing the exams of seafarer first level captain and first class seafarer navigator as ship master. |
| First Level Mate | 1. Having obtained an academic profiles of either a public or private junior college, or any foreign education of equivalent, which is recognized and approved by the Ministry of Education in subjects relating to Fishing, Fishery, and Marine Navigation. |
| | 2. Having obtained an academic profile of either a public or private senior marine and fishery vocational school in subjects relating to Fishing, Fishery, Marine Navigation, and Fishery Navigation. |
| | 3. Having obtained a First Level Mate and Second Level Captain qualification certified by the Ministry of Transportation and Communications, or the Examination Yuan certification on passing the exams of Seafarer First Level Mate, Seafarer Second Level Captain; First Class Seafarer Navigator as Chief Officer; Second Class Seafarer Navigator as Ship Master. |
| Second Level Captain | Having obtained a First Level Mate and Second Level Mate qualification certified by the Ministry of Transportation and Communications, or the Examination Yuan certification on passing the exams of Seafarer First Level Chief Mate, Seafarer Second Level Mate; First Class Seafarer Navigator as Chief Officer, Deck Officer; Second Class Seafarer Navigator as Chief Officer; Third Class Seafarer Navigator as Captain. |
| Second Level Mate | 1. Having served on fishing vessels that exceed 12 meters length overall, in positions of navigation unite for a |

| | |
|--|--|
| | period over 6 months, with an academic profile of either a public or private senior marine and fishery vocational school in subjects relating to Fishing, Fishery, Marine Navigation, and Fishery Navigation, provided with documents that can offer reference for such a profile. |
| | 2. Having obtained a First Level Mate and Second Level Mate qualification certified by the Ministry of Transportation and Communications, or the Examination Yuan certification on passing the exams of Seafarer First Level Chief Mate, Seafarer Second Level Mate; First Class Seafarer Navigator as Chief Officer and Deck Officer; Second Class Seafarer Navigator as Chief Officer; Third Class Seafarer Navigator as Chief Mate, Chief Officer, Deck Officer, Maritime Chief Pilot and Assistant Pilot. |
| Third Level Captain | Having served on fishing vessels in positions of navigation unit for a period over 6 months, with an academic profile of either a public or private senior marine and fishery vocational school in subjects relating to either Fishing, Fishery, Marine Navigation, and Fishery Navigation, provided with documents that can offer reference for such a profile. |
| First Level Chief Engineer | Having obtained a First Level Chief Engineer qualification certified by the Ministry of Transportation and Communications, or the Examination Yuan certification on passing the exams of Seafarer First Level Chief Engineer; First Class Seafarer Engineer as Chief. |
| First Level Chief Engineering Supervisor | 1. Having served on fishing vessels equipped with the main engine output rate of 750,000 watts or above, in positions of engineering unit for a period over 6 months, with an academic profile of either a public or private junior college, or any foreign education of equivalent, which is recognized and approved by the Ministry of Education in subjects relating to Marine Engineering, Mechanical Engineering, or Mechanics, provided with documents that can offer reference for such a profile. |
| | 2. Having obtained a First Level Chief Engineering Supervisor or Second Level Chief Engineer qualification certified by the Ministry of Transportation and Communications, or the Examination Yuan certification |

| | |
|------------------------------------|---|
| | on passing the exams of Seafarer First Level Chief Engineering Supervisor, Second Level Chief Engineer; First Class Seafarer 2nd Engineer; Second Class Seafarer Chief Engineer. |
| First Level Engineering Supervisor | 1. Having served on fishing vessels in positions of engineering unit for a period over 6 months, with an academic profile of either a public or private senior marine and fishery vocational school in subjects relating to Marine/Fishery Engineering, provided with documents that can offer reference for such a profile |
| | 2. Having served on fishing vessels in First Level Engineering Supervisor or Second Level Chief Engineering Supervisor qualification certified by the Ministry of Transportation and Communications, or the Examination Yuan certification on passing the exams of Seafarer First Level Engineering Supervisor, Second Level Chief Engineering Supervisor; First Class Seafarer 3rd and 4th Engineer; Second Class Seafarer 2nd Engineer. |
| Second Level Chief Engineer | Having obtained Second Level Engineering Supervisor, Third Level Chief Engineer, and Third Level Engineering Supervisor qualification certified by the Ministry of Transportation and Communications, or the Examination Yuan certification on passing the exams of Seafarer Second Level Engineering Supervisor, Third Level Chief Engineer, and Third Level Engineering Supervisor; Second Class Seafarer 3rd and 4th Engineer. |
| Radio Controller | Having obtained the 2nd Class Radio Controller qualification certified by the Ministry of Transportation and Communications. |
| Ordinary Operator on duty | Having obtained the General Operator Certificate issued by the Ministry of Transportation and Communications. |