In the event that such documents are not resubmitted within the specified time limit or are found inconsistent, the approval of the organic labeling in that case shall be revoked, or the documents of agreement shall be annulled.

An applicant should file application mentioned in Paragraph I through an agent by issuing the Power of Attorney (Cf. Appendix 4).

5. While applying for issuing document to approve organic labeling, the applicant shall, based on the numbering and coding principles for organic labeling set forth in the remarks of the application form, complete coding process and enter the codes into the appropriate box of the application form and shall duly file application along with the accompanying documents specified in the preceding paragraph.

6. Where an application is found inconsistent with the specified process but where remedy proves possible, the case shall be handled in accordance with the following manner:

(1) The applicant shall complete the remedial actions within one month after receipt of the notice from the Council of Agriculture. If the applicant fails to complete remedial process within the specified time limit without a justifiable reason, the Council of Agriculture shall dismiss the application with a receipt and with statement of the reasons of dismissal. The review fee already paid by the applicant shall not be returned.

(2) Where the applicant has submitted remedial action in response to the notice received from the Council of Agriculture but the remedy is still found inconsistent with the specified process, the applicant is deemed as having not submitted the remedy. The Council of Agriculture shall dismiss the application with a receipt and with statement of the reasons of dismissal. The review fee already paid by the applicant shall not be returned.

7. Where an application is to be accompanied with samples for inspection, the application shall be handled in the following manner:

(1) Where the applicant is advised by the Council of Agriculture to submit samples for inspection, the applicant shall submit samples in two portions in the smallest possible packaging based on the notice for submittal of samples issued by the Council of Agriculture (Cf. Appendix 5) to the Council of Agriculture within one month. If the samples are not submitted within the specified time limit without justifiable reasons, the Council of Agriculture shall dismiss the application with a receipt and with statement of the reasons of dismissal. The review fee already paid by the applicant shall not be returned.

(2) Upon receipt of the samples submitted by the applicant, the Council of Agriculture shall issue a receipt of samples received (Cf. Appendix 6) to the applicant in response.

(3) Where the samples submitted by the applicant are found inconsistent with the requirements but remedy proves possible, the procedures set forth in preceding paragraph shall apply.

(4) Where the samples submitted by the applicant prove inconsistent with the requirements after the inspection process, the Council of Agriculture shall dismiss the application with a receipt and with statement of the reasons of dismissal. The review fee already paid by the applicant shall not be returned.

8. Where samples submitted in an application case prove necessary to receive inspection, the case shall be handled in the following manner:

(1) The applicant shall submit the inspection fee and samples enough for inspection and for archiving to the inspection body specified by the Council of Agriculture (hereinafter referred to as the Specified Inspection Body) based on the notice for submittal inspection issued by the Council of Agriculture (Cf. Appendix 7) within one month after receipt of the notice for sample inspection issued by the Council of Agriculture. If the fee and the samples are not submitted within the specified time limit without justifiable reasons, the Council of Agriculture shall dismiss the application with a receipt and with statement of the reasons of dismissal. The review fee already paid by the applicant shall not be returned.

(2) The Council of Agriculture shall serve a duplicate copy to the Specified Inspection Body when advising the applicant in accordance with the preceding paragraph.

(3) The Specified Inspection Body shall, after completing the inspection of the samples, serve the result of inspection to the Council of Agriculture and serve a photocopy of the result to the applicant.

(4) In the event that the submitted samples fail to pass inspection and the applicant does not apply for recheck within the time limit specified under Article 10, and if application for recheck is not permitted, the Council of Agriculture shall dismiss the application with a receipt and with statement of the reasons of dismissal. The review fee already paid by the applicant shall not be returned.

9. The volume of the "samples enough for inspection and for archiving" mentioned in Paragraph 1 of the preceding Article shall be duly determined based on Rules on Sampling Methods and Quantities of Agricultural Food Products and Agricultural Food Processed Products.
