(3) Sibling(s).

(4) Grandparents.

If the designated receivers referred to in the preceding paragraph are two or more, they must collectively authorize one person to submit the application for the consolation money, and the application must bear the signatures of all receivers.

Applications for consolation money from the receivers must be submitted within two years from the date of the fisherman's death or disappearance. Applications submitted after this deadline will not be accepted.

Article 6

The consolation money may be granted by the Fisheries Agency of this Ministry, either by sending a representative to offer condolences and distribute the consolation money, or by having the applicant submit a household registration transcript, bank account details, and a receipt (in the attached format), along with an application for relief funds under the "Regulations on Insurance and Assistance for Fishermen Operating at Sea." Applications should be submitted to the Fisheries Agency of this Ministry for review, and if approved, the consolation money will be distributed equally among the recipients.

Article 7

The consolation money shall not be granted if the receiver is found to be under any of the following conditions; in the event that the consolation money has already been granted and received, the approval will be revoked and the consolation money must be returned within a time limit as informed:

- (1) False information is provided, or the information is incomplete.
- (2) The consolation money is received through deceptive or other illegitimate means.

Article 8

The expenses required pursuant to these Directions shall be covered by the budget of the Fisheries Agency of this Ministry. In the event that the funds for the current year are exhausted, priority shall be given to appropriating funds from the budget of the subsequent year.
