

Content

Title :	Regulations Governing the Application Procedures for Exemption from the Requirement to Slaughter Cattle and Sheep in Slaughterhouses for Consumption in Islamic (Muslim) Eid al-Adha Rituals
Date :	2023.07.18
Legislative :	1.Promulgated by the Council of Agriculture, Executive Yuan on July 17, 2017 2.Amended by the Council of Agriculture, Executive Yuan on July 18, 2023
Content :	1.These Regulations are prescribed by the Ministry of Agriculture to implement the proviso of Paragraph 1, Article 29 of the Animal Industry Act, and in accordance with the Announcement No.1061505452 issued by the former Council of Agriculture, Executive Yuan (on June 28, 2017), designating that cattle and sheep slaughtered for consumption in Islamic (Muslim) Eid al-Adha rituals are exempt from slaughter at slaughterhouses. 2.An Islamic (Muslim) juridical person must, at least seven (7) days prior to the date of the ritual, complete and submit to the municipal or county (city) government where the ritual is to be held: (1) an application form (Annex 1); and (2) and its certificate of registration, documentation of the source of cattle and sheep, and other relevant supporting documents. 3.Upon review of the application referred to in the preceding paragraph, the municipal or county (city) government having jurisdiction over the location of the ritual will issue a review notification (Annex 2). 4.Where the application is approved by the municipal or county (city) government having jurisdiction over the location of the ritual, the cattle and sheep slaughtered for consumption in the Islamic (Muslim) Eid al-Adha ritual are exempt from the requirement to be slaughtered in slaughterhouses. However, all applicable laws and regulations concerning animal protection and environmental protection must still be complied with.
Attachments :	Annex1 Application Form.pdf Annex2 Review Notification.pdf

Data Source : MINISTRY OF AGRICULTURE Laws and Regulations Retrieving System