The minimum requirements of feed compositions and feed additives shall be governed by the national standards. If no applicable national standards are available, the requirements shall be established by the competent authority in concert with the authority concerned after an application for product registration has been filed in respect of the specific compositions.

Article 5

For the purposes of this Act, the term "feed manufacturer" shall denote a business concern that manufactures, processes or repacks feeds or feed additives.

Article 6

For the purposes of this Act, the term "feed vendor" shall denote a business concern that deals in feeds or feed additives as a wholesaler, retailer, importer and exporter; provided that a feed manufacturer shall not be required to apply to be registered as a feed vendor if the feed manufacturer sells its products by wholesale.

Article 7

For the purposes of this Act, the term "labelling" shall mean any legend, logo or symbol appearing on containers or packages of feeds or feed additives.

Article 8

The central competent authority shall, in concert with the competent authority, work out plans with respect to the production, manufacture, transportation and marketing as well as the exportation and importation of feeds so as to avoid disrupting the demand and supply of feeds or creating abnormal prices.

Chapter II. MANUFACTURE, EXPORTATION AND IMPORTATION OF FEEDS

Article 9

A feed or feed additive factory shall be established in conformity with the feed or feed additive factory establishment standard; in addition, factory registration shall be obtained in accordance with law. The above mentioned factory establishment standard shall be prescribed by the central competent authority in concert with the central competent industrial development authority and the central health authority.

Feed or feed additive factory permits shall be issued by the competent industrial development authority in concert with the competent agricultural authority.

Article 10

In order to produce, process, package fodder or fodder additives, the person in charge needs to make ready with relevant papers or documents concerning their category, kind of item, name of product, components, physical and chemical properties, testing method, the object of application as well as the way to use it and apply to the central or municipal competent authority where the factory is located for testing registration. Before he is allowed to produce, process and package them, he has to pass the testing, is notified to pay for the certificate fee and is granted the registration certificate of production of fodder or fodder additives. In the event that the testing method is stipulated by the national standard, he is exempt from submitting the physical and chemical properties and testing method.

The charge rate of the foregoing item is prescribed by the central competent authority.

The production, processing and packaging of home-made fodder for the purpose of private usage or the fodder and fodder additives for the special usage by institutions of testing and research are exempt from going through the formalities of registration.

Concerning the home-made fodder into which additives need to be added, the person in charge needs to apply to the municipal or prefecture (city) competent authority for registration; the regulative measures of them are prescribed by the central competent authority.

The household which produces home-made fodder for private usage and which does not operate in accordance with the regulation of the foregoing regulative measures will be subjected to penalty according to this law; in addition, the municipal or prefecture (city) competent authority may notify the person in question to go through formalities or make corrections within a period of time. Those who fail to do so will have their registration certificates annulled.

Article 11

In order to import fodder or fodder additives, the person in charge needs to make ready with relevant papers or documents concerning its category, kind of item, name of product, components, physical and chemical properties, testing method, the object of application, the way to use it as well as package weight together with samples and testing fees and apply to the central competent authority or via municipal competent authority where the factory is located for testing registration. After the fodder passes the testing and the person in charge is notified to pay for the certificate fee and is granted the registration certificate sanctioning the import of fodder or fodder additives, he can apply to the competent authority of international trade to import them. In the event that the testing method is stipulated by national standard, he is exempt from submitting the physical and chemical properties and testing method.

The charge rate of the foregoing item is prescribed by the central competent authority.

The central competent authority may entrust the municipal authority to take charge of the registration of the first item.

Article 12

The registration certificate of the production or import of fodder or fodder additives is valid for four years. Those who continue to produce or import them after their certificates expire need to apply to the competent authority in advance for an extension only that each extension must not exceed four years.

If the registration certificate of the production or import of fodder or fodder additives is lost or damaged, the person concerned needs to state the reasons clearly, pay for the certificate fee and apply to the original authority which had issued the certificate for a duplicate or replacement. Those who lose their certificates need to revoke the original ones while those who have their certificates damaged need to submit and revoke the original ones.
